The older brother of Psilence. Like her he has been around for at least 50 years although he only looks to be in his mid-20's. He and Psilence are grandchildren of Charity Ravenwood. who were born as part of a project to produce more powerful psionics. Their parents were two of Charity Ravenwoods children chosen for their exceptional psionic gifts. Over the course of several years a number of children were born. Most of them were stillborn or horribly deformed in some way. Psilence and Omen were the only ones to exhibit psionic powers, but they were exceptionally powerful. They grew up resenting their parents and the lab-like environment in which they were raised. When they were in their teens they discovered the truth about their background, and soon after ran off. They gradually drifted apart. Psilence just wanted excitement and new things. Omen was more idealistic and gradually located the few scattered groups who opposed the various psionic dictatorships, gradually forging them into what is now the psionic resistance.
